It has the traditional needlepoint stitches listed but it allows you the "freedom of expression and enjoyment of creativity..." After reading this book Long and short stitch became a favorite of mine. I would reccommend this book for any serious needlepoint stitcher's library.

A book of Robert Capes's embroideries on canvas. He has extended traditional techniques to create new surface effects, giving a new three-dimensional depth to embroidery. This book illustrates a collection of his projects, including his "Alice in Wonderland" series, which toured with an exhibition around Australia celebrating the 125th anniversary of Lewis Carroll's masterpiece.
