The book was interesting and informative. It was a good choice because it also contains information of registration dates and manufacturer which is hard to find. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not the best choice By Elena Fedoriv Good idea but not the best handbook. Not enough information about manufactures of Europe etc, almost no info about changes of marks according to years. Most of marks are not looking close to original. A huge part for English pottery and porcelain - lucky English porcelain's collector :)

The fifth edition of a guide to pottery and porcelain marks which was first published in 1959. The book has 20 sections covering all marks known in Britain and in the major ceramic-producing countries of Europe and the Far East.

About the Author J. P. Cushion, FRSA, was a much sought-after authority on decorative and collectable pottery and porcelain. He spent many years on the staff of the Victoria and Albert Museum, mostly in the Department of Ceramics where he was the Senior Research Assistant. For twenty years he tutored courses on the history of pottery and porcelain at Morley College for the University of London Extra-Mural Department. He was the president of the Morley College Ceramic Circle and a founder lecturer for the National Association of Decorative and Fine Art Societies. William Bowyer Honey (1889-1956) was Keeper of the Department of Ceramics at the Victoria and Albert Museum from 1938 to 1950. He wrote many books and monographs about ceramic art, as well as publishing verse anthologies. He was appointed CBE in 1951.
