

Heirloom Embroidery

Jan Constantine

audiobook / *ebooks / Download PDF / ePub / DOC

Download

Read Online

#5436625 in Books 2008-08-01 Original language: English PDF # 1 9.84 x .67 x 9.06l, 1.90 #File Name: 1906417032128 pages | File size: 65.Mb

Jan Constantine : Heirloom Embroidery before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Heirloom Embroidery:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Try this!By RI reviewer Wonderful book if you want to start with this handiwork. Nicely written and useful illustrations and templates. As I am just starting out, I sense that it will also allow me to upgrade my skill set with this book alone. 13 of 13 people found the following review helpful. Great Range of ProjectsBy Diana Young This is a very enjoyable book with a good broad range of embroidery projects. The Strawberry embroidery on the cover is probably the least exciting - inside is a range of projects which are much more exciting and which you would not find anywhere else. If you like doing embroidery on cushions, bags etc, I highly recommend this book. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. LovelyBy D. Atwell I don't know why but I find her patterns and ideas restful. The finished items all have a lovely calm feel to them. Many items I am hoping to make for my home.

Jan Constantine has written this book as an inspirational guide to hand embroidery, with the aim of reviving the ancient craft. It presents more than 25 original designs that can be treasured and passed on to future generations.

About the Author Jan Constantine spent her early career as a successful fashion designer in London before moving to the Cheshire countryside to build a career in interior design and raise two daughters with her husband David. Her homes have been featured in many prestigious magazines and she has appeared on several television makeover programmes. Jan has also worked as a stylist on various advertising campaigns and on magazines such as Italian Vogue and W. In 2002 Jan launched her hand-embroidery business, creating an exquisite range of original designs for textiles and home accessories, hand-worked on high-quality natural cottons, linens, wools and silks. In just a few years it grew from a cottage industry, with friends sewing round her kitchen table, to an established brand selling through its own website (www.janconstantine.com), as well as supplying Harrods, Liberty of London, Selfridges, Fortnum Mason and John Lewis in the UK, Bergdorf Goodman in New York, and several independent shops around the world. Jan's first book, Heirloom Embroidery, was published by Jacqui Small in 2008, her second book Love Stitching was published in 2011. Jan has been appointed the official licensee for hand-embroidered textiles by LOCOG for the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games and is also now licensing her brand to include many different product lines. Her collections now include stationery, china, greetings cards, gift wrap, kitchen textiles, cook ware, scented candles, bed linen and a home ware collection in collaboration with House of Fraser stores.