Many if not all of the photos seem to be stock photography. Meaning no pictures of the actual crafts. Sure the potpourri section has plenty of pictures.... It's just that none are of the actual potpourri in the recipes. Still other ideas are accompanied by photos that are only related to the section of the book. For instance the Birth Announcements. There are two stock photos of babies, but not one of the craft. It's pretty hard for me to get past this and read the ideas and recipes.... I'm sure some are lovely 13 of 14 people found the following review helpful. Not just herbal crafts By M. Thrasher At first glance, I thought herbal crafts. What kind of crafts can you make with herbs? This book is so much more. It has great recipes and gift ideas. It's divided into sections such as babies, children, kitchen, etc. Some of the crafts in this book are things that I've seen in boutiques. This is a really great book and totally worth the $15.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Crafty and fun By T. Fitzgerald Great book for those who enjoy crafts and have a love for herbs since it incorporates both! Great to do projects with your friends/kids!

Useful household items both beautiful and aromatic are easy to make using this step-by-step guide to making herbal crafts. Projects include lavender sachets to freshen and protect the contents of drawers, padded coat hangers, and homemade dyes, inks, and watercolor paints in hazy reds and golds to decorate cloth and paper. For healthful, natural fragrance throughout the house, designs are featured for candles, scented writing paper, herb-filled pin cushions, and fragrant wreaths and garlands.
